

2023–24 Private Loan Supplemental Form

Private alternative education loans are continuing education loans made available by banks and private lending institutions, NOT by the federal government. You do not need to complete a FAFSA to be eligible for a private loan. The interest rates, fees, and repayment schedules vary from one lender to another, and eligibility is typically based on creditworthiness. Please contact lenders directly to compare loans, loan terms, interest rates, fees, and repayment process.

UCLA School Code: 001315
